COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

Complaints Procedure

1. Tell us about your concern

Write, phone, or email, the Clerk, full contact details can be found on the following page.

Please be as precise as possible about your concern and we shall try to deal with it straight away. Depending on the nature of the complaint the Clerk may refer it for consideration by the Full Council.

The Clerk may need to look into the matter further before giving you a response and in the majority of cases we hope to be able to resolve your concern at this point.

2. Still not satisfied?

If you are not happy about how the Clerk has dealt with your concern, please contact the Chairman of the Council. Full contact details can be found at the end of this document.

A complaint is taken very seriously. Every effort will be made to ensure that you are satisfied with the result you achieve through this process. Depending on the nature of the complaint the Chairman may refer it for consideration by the Full Council.

3. Full Council

If the Chairman has been involved but has not been able to provide a satisfactory solution, the full Council can be asked to look at your concern.

You may write to the Chairman or Clerk requesting this matter is considered by the full council. You then have an opportunity to voice your concern to the full council during public participation, the full Council will then review all the steps taken to date and recommend any further action thought to be necessary.

VEXATIOUS COMPLAINTS

A vexatious complainant is one who persists unreasonably with their complaints, or makes complaints in order to inconvenience the Council rather than genuinely resolve an issue. This may include making serial complaints about different issues or continuing to raise the same or similar matters repeatedly.

If a complainant is to be classified as vexatious the complainant shall be informed as such and notified that no further action or responses will be provided.

Should a vexatious complainant make a new complaint about new unconnected issue this will be treated on its merits.
